Your time to own in one of Grande Prairie's most sought after subdivisions has arrived! Welcome to your affordable, executive two story unit situated on a quiet, no through traffic street with a ton of additional parking. Just steps away from a K-8 school situated within the master planned community of Whispering Ridge. Access to several playgrounds, walking and bike trails throughout the neighbourhood offer a friendly and active lifestyle for you and yours. This low maintenance, NO HOA fees home is an excellent starter, downsize or right sized property. With rental rates commanding over $2000 per month in these units, and the added benefit of low county taxes, this is surely a great property to add to your real estate portfolio. Upon entry you will notice a spacious entrance with large closet, 2 piece powder room and an open-floor concept seamlessly connecting your kitchen, living and dining area. The kitchen offers quartz countertops, a large island allowing for additional seating and a walk in, corner pantry. The dark stained island offers a rich contrast to the bright white cabinets throughout the rest of the kitchen, keeping the main floor bright and airy. Heading upstairs to the second level you have a full 4 piece bathroom, laundry room, 2 good sized bedrooms and the primary suite. The expansive primary bedroom features a large walk in closet with wood shelving and a dual vanity in the ensuite, offering additional storage as nice sized walk in shower. Outside you have your own 12x24 attached single car garage as well as a low maintenance side yard that is fenced. With a price point below Grande Prairie's average home sale price, this property won't last long. Connect with your preferred agent to set up a viewing today!
